

STR has over
52,000 participating hotels
globally representing over 7.2 million rooms.
Are you one of them?

PR&LA and STR, the global leader in hotel data and performance benchmarking, are pleased to offer special introductory rates for STR products and services to all of our members.

For 30 years, STR has worked hand in hand with the hospitality industry to provide complete, confidential, comprehensive and customized data. Hoteliers use the STAR Report to gauge their competition, benchmark performance and identify ways to increase their revenue. All major chains and thousands of independent hotels already participate with STR, including over 85% of the rooms in our state.

Allied Member?

STR products are also available for our allied members. The most popular of these products is the hotel pipeline, which provides an inside look at future hotel supply and a list of upcoming projects to help build lead lists.

Additional Offers

Because of our special relationship with the STR family of companies, including Hotel News Now, STR Analytics and the Hotel Data Conference, we are able to extend special introductory discounts for these companies as well, which are listed in the side column. For more information on the STR family of companies or products available, please contact Melissa Holm at mholm@str.com or 615 824 8664 ext. 3468.
